The Investor Rights Agreement sets forth the following rights of Shah Opportunity:

Registration Rights

Shah Opportunity has certain customary registration rights with respect to the Shares held by Shah Opportunity, including demand registration rights and piggyback registration rights.

Demand Shelf Registration Rights

Upon Shah Opportunities’ request, the Issuer will prepare and file a registration statement on Form F-3 for the SPA Shares and any other equity securities held or acquired by Shah Opportunity (unless they have been transferred by Shah Opportunity in a transaction in which their rights cannot be assigned or are sold pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”)) pursuant to Rule 415 of the Securities Act, and will use reasonable best efforts to cause the registration to become effective or declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing (but in any event not later than forty five (45) days from the request of Shah Opportunity). Subject to certain restrictions, Shah Opportunity may also specify the kind and number of securities it wishes to sell pursuant to such registration and the Issuer will amend or supplement the registration as necessary.

Piggyback Registration Rights

Subject to certain limitations and after the Lock Up Period (defined below), if the Issuer proposes to register any securities under the Securities Act with respect to an offering of securities by the Issuer for its own account or for the account of any other persons (other than: (i) pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-4 or Form S-8 (or a similar or successor form); (ii) pursuant to any form that does not include substantially the same information as would be required to be included in a registration statement covering the sale of Shah Opportunities’ equity securities; (iii) in connection with any dividend reinvestment or similar plan; (iv) for the sole purpose of offering securities to another entity or its security holders in connection with the acquisition of assets or securities of such entity or any similar transaction; or (v) that relates to an offering of securities that is not underwritten and occurs at the same time as a shelf registration described above), it must give written notice to Shah Opportunity of its intention to do so as soon as practicable and, to the extent permitted under applicable law, include in such registration all equity securities of Shah Opportunity with respect to which the Issuer has received written requests for inclusion within six (6) business days after receipt of the Issuer’s notice.

Expenses

Subject to certain exceptions, all fees and expenses incidental to the Issuer's performance of or compliance with its registration obligations under the Investor Rights Agreement will be borne by the Issuer whether or not any registrable securities are sold pursuant to a registration statement.

Indemnification

The Investor Rights Agreement includes customary cross-indemnification provisions, under which the Issuer is obligated to indemnify Shah Opportunity, its officers, directors, employees, advisors, affiliates, and agents and each of their control persons from losses arising out of or based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact in any registration statement, any omission or alleged omission of a material fact or material fact necessary to make the statements in the registration statement not misleading, or any violation or alleged violation of securities laws. Shah Opportunity is obligated to indemnify Issuer, its directors, officers, employees, advisors, affiliates, and agents, and each of their control persons from losses arising out of or based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact in any registration statement or omission or alleged omission of material fact or material fact necessary to make the statements in the registration statement not misleading to the extent such statement or omission is made in reliance upon written information furnished by Shah Opportunity expressly for inclusion in such registration statement or prospectus.

Board Representation

The Investor Rights Agreement provides that the board of directors of the Issuer (the "Board") will be comprised of seven members and Shah Opportunity is entitled to appoint two of the directors (the "Investor Directors"). In the event of any vacancy of any Investor Director, Shah Opportunity has the exclusive right to designate a replacement to fill such vacancy. Further, three of the directors will be independent directors recommended by Li and Shah Opportunity after consultation with each other. Shah Opportunity appointed Mr. Ke Chen and Mr. Kaiheng Feng to serve as directors on the Board.

Transfer Restrictions

During the period between the date of the Investor Rights Agreement and one hundred eight (180) days following the closing (the "Lock Up Period"), Shah Opportunity cannot directly or indirectly transfer the SPA Shares without the prior written consent of the Issuer; provided, however, Shah Opportunity may transfer the SPA Shares to an affiliate.

Consultation

Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, the Founder Parties and Shah Opportunity must consult with each other on any proposal regarding the following matters submitted to the Board or shareholders: (i) recommendation of any candidate for director of the Issuer or its subsidiaries (each, a “Group Company”) (other than those the Founder Parties or Shah Opportunity are entitled to appoint); (ii) issuance or sale of equity securities in any Group Company; (iii) future financing involving any Group Company; (iv) material business operations, transactions, and strategic adjustments of any Group Company; (v) appointment or removal of key executive of any Group Company; and (vi) all other matters to be decided by the Board or shareholders of the Issuer.

Tag Along Rights

If any Founder Party or its affiliate intends to transfer all or a portion of their equity securities in the Issuer to a third party (other than to an immediate family member), the applicable seller must provide Shah Opportunity an opportunity to participate in such transfer on a pro rata basis. If Shah Opportunity exercises such right, Shah Opportunity will have the right to include the SPA Shares in the proposed sale on the same terms and conditions as applicable to the sale of equity securities by the initiating stockholder.

Pre-Emptive Right

Shah Opportunity will have the right to purchase up to its pro rata share of securities being issued and sold in any of the Issuer’s or its subsidiaries’ future offerings of equity securities, other than equity securities issued pursuant to a duly adopted equity incentive plan of the Issuer.

Board Approval

The Investor Rights Agreement requires the Issuer to seek Board approval of certain actions, including, without limitation, the appointment or removal of the Issuer's chief executive officer, chief financial officer, or chief operating officer; engaging in any transaction with related persons that would result in payments over RMB $5 million; engaging in any transaction that would result in payments over US $3 million; incurrence of indebtedness in excess of US $5 million; appointing or removal of an auditor or accounting firm; providing any guarantee or subjecting assets to a lien; transfer of any asset valued over US $5 million; approval of an annual budget of the Issuer and its subsidiaries; and other transactions to be mutually agreed.

Consistent with their investment research methods and evaluation criteria, the Reporting Persons may discuss such matters with the Issuer's management or the Board, other stockholders, industry analysts, existing or potential strategic partners or competitors, investment and financing professionals, sources of credit, and other investors. Such evaluations and discussions, subject to any restrictions in the Share Purchase Agreement or Investor Rights Agreement, may materially affect, and result in, among other things, the Reporting Persons: (1) modifying their ownership of the shares, including, without limitation, the purchase or sale of shares in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions of otherwise; (2) exchanging information with the Issuer pursuant to appropriate confidentiality or similar agreements; (3) proposing changes in the Issuer's operations, governance or capitalization; (4) pursuing a transaction that would result in the Reporting Persons' acquisition of all or a controlling interest in the Issuer; or (5) pursuing one or more of the other actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of §240.13d-101. The Reporting Persons may at any time reconsider and change their plans or proposals relating to the foregoing.
